

On The Porch 2010 Concert Series August 15 thru November 14 “rain or shine”

Every Sunday evening beginning an hour before sunset, enjoy a lawn concert with great music and relax with your family and friends. At sunset, we stop the music and raise a toast to life and love! The winery is open for tasting and purchasing wine by the glass or bottle. Bring your lawn chairs and come relax with us. There is a cover charge for adults over 18 for each of these events. We have fine cheeses, deli crackers and sausages, along with jams and sauces for snacks. This year, we will have a food vendor on-hand for each of the concerts serving great meals! Please note that per TABC, it is illegal for you to bring alcohol onto the property.

August 15 Jim Moody and Patty Adams: Jim and Patty are another new group of artists we are introducing to our lineup. They play locally and their music is an acoustic set of easy listening blended with Eagles and soft rock. Cover charge will be $7

August 22: Silver Shoes: John and Maureen are so great and have been one of our crowd's favorite duos. We book them at least twice every year! This is a dynamic husband/wife duo playing some incredible music with guitar and mandolin. They perform original songs and songs written with Shake Russell, Michael Hearn, and many other great Texas song writers. Easy listening and great light country folk.. Check them out at www.silvershoesmusic.com Cover charge will be $7

August 29: Mike Gallo: Mike is one of the veterans of the Texas Blues Festival held every year in Navasota. Navasota is the documented Blues Capital of Texas. Please check him out at www.mikegallo.net All I can say is that Mike is a phenomenal blues guitar picker, singer and song writer. If you like the music of Eric Clapton, James Taylor, and Leon Russell, you will really enjoy this evening. Cover charge will be $7

September 5 Labor Day Grape Stomp

On Sunday, September 6, bring the whole family out and celebrate our fall harvest with a stroll through the vineyard, grape stomp, lawn games, specialty food tasting, sunset toast and poetry readings and of course a fantastic concert by Shake Russell and his band!!

Starting at 4:00 you are invited to take a stroll through the vines lead by award winning wine columnist, Ron Saikowski. You can check out this year's crop and if you would like, take your picture with the vines. You can also jump into the Lucy-Look-A-Like vat and crush grapes. There will be a Lucy-Look-Alike contest with prizes awarded to the top two look-alikes. There will be T-shirts for $13 for you to step upon recording your crushing experience. Stomping on T-shirts is a great experience for parents, grandparents and kid's. You can put the whole family on one shirt. These T-shirts make great Christmas presents. We will also have on-hand specialty food vendors creating a festival atmosphere. The music will start at 6:45. For this special occasion, we have Shake Russel and his band. Shake is one of Texas's great troubadours and sings with an incredible heart. We will have Fajitas provided by Kirby's family BBQ for you to purchase for dinner. Cover charge will be $10.\

September 12 Buck Yeager Band: This is a new bands we are introducing to our lineup They are one of Houston's new and arising bands. They have opened for Robert Earl Keen, Jack Ingram, Bellemy Brothers, Shake Russell and many more. They take from these artists' styles and create their own music. The band recently released a cover of Shake Russell's "Deep In The West". Check them out at www.buckyeagerband.com Cover charge for this concert will be $7.

September 19 Fab 5: If you love the Beatles music, great entertainment, and are ready to take a trip back in time, then don't miss this great concert. Last year we had a 60's dress up competition and everyone had a blast. So again, shake out your Beatles wig and your old 60's outfits, let out the seams and come take a trip back in time! We will award prizes for the Best Beatles Look-alike person, and for the Best Dressed 60's guy and gal! Check them out at www.thefab5.net Cover charge for this concert will be $10.

September 26: Mary Allen Keating- Mary's abilities as a songwriter, scriptwriter, interactive performer, musical theatre producer and Patsy Cline impersonator make Mary Allen-Keating a unique and refreshingly engaging entertainer. This fantastic group will wow us with their Western Swing and Patsy Cline music! She will do a whole set of Patsy Cline including her special costumes! Check her out at www.maryallenkeating.com Cover charge for this concert will be $7.

October 3: Bob Livingston: Bob is one of our most honored and recognized singer and songwriter to play on our porch. Bob has traveled, played and recorded with Michael Martin Murphy, Jerry Jeff Walker, Gary P. Nun and many more Texas legends. Livingston has been called a 'cosmic cowboy' for good reason. He's looked into the music and mysteries of other cultures and tours in countries like India, Pakistan, Africa, and the Middle East and Vietnam. Inspired by his tours in India, Livingston released a new CD in 2004 for Vireo Records called Mahatma Gandhi & Sitting Bull. The Austin-American Statesman chose it as one of the top-ten records of 2004. Check him out at www.texasmusic.org/bob_livingston.php Cover charge for this concert will be $7.

October 31: To be announced This is Halloween and all the ghost and goblins will be coming out. We are still working on confirming the entertainment. But, how could we let this event slip by without a Costume Contest!! So begin planning your costume and we will let you know the entertainment as soon as all is confirmed.

November 7: To be announced

November 14: Back by popular demand, singer/song writer, Michael Hearn will be teaming up Shake Russell and his band for a very special sunset concert. This will be our third anniversary to host these two outstanding artists for the final concert of the season. This concert has been one of everyone's favorite and one we are asked to repeat every year! So these two great guys have agreed to make it a tradition to play out here every year to close out the season. This is a true unique musical event combining these two music legends. It is very rare that these two old friends get to play together here in Texas! Check Michael out at www.michaelhearn.com and Shake Russell out at www.shakerussell.com There is a $10 cover charge for this concert

December 19: Christmas Luminary Event: It's not too early to put this event on your calendar. This is our big Christmas event with over 1000 Luminaries, hay rides through the luminaries, music festival and Christmas Carol singing! At this time the entertainers we have are Silvershoes and Mike Gallo and more to be announced soon.
